In order to accommodate those who may be comparatively indifferent to a "Specimen of a Modern Edited to to Young Laddes," "Ceylon and its Mysteres," "National Characteristics of Frenca and Germans," "Mountains and their Influence," and to searching criticisms of books represented as the very foundains of knowledge, as well as to "insurance, good, bad and indifferent," but wish to make themselves fully acquisinted with the performances of the great Tammany Naturalist, the paper entitled "The Central Park Inder Ring-Leader Rule." is now being reprined, and will be issued in a separate, hardsome form in a few days. It is but justice to the distinguished naturalist to admit that so great is the co-fidence of the public in his profound and tearind researches, especially in the vogetable king out, that the very imperfect sketch we have given of his "works" has pretty nearly exhausted, even the edition of the REVIEW, which we announced as affording a "full supply." In order to place the results within the reach of all who are interested in parks, gardens, quack medicine, coaches end-sky, e.c., &c., only 25 cents will be charged for the parno let.
